Academy's milestone double

TWO MILESTONES were reached in the journey to open Chelsea Academy. On Tuesday last week, the archdeacon of Middlesex, Reverend Stephen Welch, was voted in as chairman of the governing body, and Cllr Merrick Cockell as vice chairman. They will make decisions about how the governing body runs and make plans for various aspects of the academy, which is due to be built in Lots Road, Chelsea. The final contract for the construction of the new school was also signed by Cllr Merrick Cockell, and Tom Peryer director of education for the London Diocesan Board for Schools.
